Smart Community Exchange (SCE) Speakers Bureau Launches

Alpharetta, GA (June 28, 2016) Smart Community Review (SCR) --- Smart Community Exchange (SCE) today announced the launch and the establishment of Smart Speakers Bureau, a dedicated service to book Smart Community Experts for public and private events worldwide. The announcement was made today by Minna LeVine, Co-Founder, Smart Community Exchange (SCE).

The Smart Speakers Bureau works with Chambers of Commerce, Associations, Government Agencies, Corporations, Academia, and other professional Organizations to secure appearances by Smart Community Experts in the U.S. and around the world. The SCE handles speaker engagements for participating Speakers.

Participating Speakers include international Smart Community, Technology, Finance, and Business Leaders. For a list of speakers, visit www.SmartCommunityReview.com. The publication will deliver new Speakers on a regular basis. The next event in July 26, 2016 will feature Jeff Gaynor, "The Cyber Challenge and the Resilience Imperative", at North Fulton Chamber of Commerce. Other upcoming events will feature Speakers from around the world.

"The Smart Community Exchange (SCE) Speakers Bureau brings together individuals and organizations through a powerful SMART Community Exchange global platform to drive more sales and investment in Smart Innovation and Smart Education. We connect investors, innovators and strategic partners through Speaker Series, multiple exchanges, international marketing, online learning center, publications and events around the world," said Tana Torrano, co-founder, Smart Community Exchange. "This is an innovative initiative in the global marketplace – connecting Smart Community Experts with Community, Business, and Education Leaders. Our wide range of Experts makes us uniquely positioned to offer direct access to an array of fascinating Speakers", adds LeVine.

Smart Community Exchange (SCE) Speakers Bureau

We invite Business Leaders and Investors to participate in Global Summits and Executive round tables in Smart Community Exchange (SCE) partner locations around the world. Speakers provide Journalists, C-Level Executives, and Investors the opportunity to learn about our Smart Communities and expose them to key players in local and international Trade and Investment. At the core of the Speakers Bureau is the Smart Community exchange and private meetings between participants - Community, Business, Finance, and Education Leaders, and Government officials. The Speaker events include North America, Nordic Countries, Asia, Europe, Asia Pacific, MENA, South America, and Caribbean. The SCE will bring Speakers to communities around the world with the support of local partners. We look forward to your participation. www.SmartCommunityReview.com
